Response

1. The response filed on 8/24/2006 has been received and made of record.
2. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 2-13 and 15-20 have been fully considered but are moot in view of new ground of rejection.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 101

35 U.S.C. 101 reads as follows:

4. Whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter, or any new and useful improvement thereof, may obtain a patent therefor, subject to the conditions and requirements of this title.
5. Claims 2-13 and 15-20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because the claimed invention is directed to non-statutory subject matter.

For example:

Claim 33, recites a method comprising the steps of.

receiving a message from an Internet user, the message requesting information provided at a content provider address;

determining whether or not the content provider address has a corresponding.

alterative address, the corresponding alternative address providing at least part of the information provided at the content provider address; and determining whether or not the requested information is within the at least part of the information"

6. The claims lack concrete, useful and tangible result.

7. The claimed invention as a whole must be useful and accomplish a practical application. That is, it must produce a "useful, concrete and tangible result." State

Art Unit: 2157

Street, 149 F.3d at 1373-74, 47 USPQ2d at 1601-02. The purpose of this requirement is to limit patent protection to inventions that possess a certain level of "real world" value, as opposed to subject matter that represents nothing more than an idea or concept, or is simply a starting point for future investigation or research (Brenner v. Manson, 383 U.S. 519, 528-36, 148 USPQ 689, 693-96 (1966)); In re Fisher, 421 F.3d 1365, 76 USPQ2d 1225 (Fed. Cir. 2005); In re Ziegler, 992 F.2d 1197, 1200-03, 26 USPQ2d 1600, 1603-06 (Fed. Cir. 1993)).

8. Claims 2-13 and 15-20 are also rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph. Specifically, since the claimed invention is not supported by either a asserted utility or a well established utility for the reasons set forth above, one skilled in the art clearly would not know how to use the claimed invention.

Conclusion

9. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
